

(He asked your sister if you could marry him?)

WAS IN SCHOOL IN CHILOCCO - SISTER DECIDED ON WEDDING

Uamm. We got out of school--well, his mother was sickly all the time. That's the reason why he wanted to get married then. I wasn't ready to get married.

I wanted to go on through school. I was coming along by myself and out by myself. I liked school and wanted to go through school. I went to school two years at Chilocco. I was at Concho one time and they asked if I wanted to go to Indian school. And I was wondering if Mom and Dad would agree to it and he took me back to Concho.

(You must have told him no, when he asked to marry you.)

Well, I told him I wanted to go through school. My sister agreed with him, I guess, and my sister came after me, in Chilocco I told her same thing. She came after me. Took me home.

(What year?)

1930.

(How old was your sister, older than you?)

Older than me.

(And she was the one that decided that you should marry him right then?)

Told me that he come from a good family and she thought he could take good care of me.

(Did you have any brothers?)

I had a brother. Half brother. (name not clear) He lives in El Reno. He married that Kiowa woman. Have boy and a girl. My neice, she's married to a Seminole Indian. And he works at Oklahoma City. He went about his second year in college, and she said (not clear) her second marriage, got one little girl.
