

CHURCH WEDDING SEVERAL MONTHS LATER

Well,-- Oh, it was in September when we got our marriage license.

(Did you have a church wedding?)

Uhuh. We had church wedding, and he was working at Cantonment and he was camping down there and we had to go to Cantonment to get our marriage license and they didn't take no blood test or anything.

(You got married in the church building after you got married the Indian way?)

Uhuh.

(What did the preacher have to say about that, or did he say anything?)

No. He didn't say anything, but once in a while he came back. He lost his wife and he left and I heard that he got married again. Once in a great while he come back.

(That's kind of unusual now, isn't it?)

Uhuh.

(What was your church wedding like?)

Oh, just like--like the regular ceremony, you know.

(You didn't have any party afterwards or--)

No, huhuh. His father was there and other relatives.

(How did you like your house when you lived in town?)

Over here--Just fine. I had to cook over and over, one day be different.

One day I do cooking.

(Did you have a hard time learning to take care of the house or anything?)

No. I did that before.

(Did you miss school?)

Oh, I did. Sometimes I just feel like going back. I wanted to finish school.

(Were you happy with Gilbert?)

Uh huh.
