

SELECTING NAMES FOR BABIES

(When did you pick out a name for your babies, after they were born?)

Uh huh.

(How did you go about picking a name out for them?)

Oh, we got our names, these English names got Indian names we want to call them. But these Indian names, you know, like on my--like now my daughter, all their Indian names comes from my father's tribe.

(They take the names from the father's tribe or the father's tribe names them?)

Uh huh, Indian names.

(They give them Indian names?)

Uh huh.

(Does anyone on the mother's side have anything to say about what the baby is names?)

Huh huh.

(Is there any special ceremony or anything when they are naming the baby?)

Huh huh.

(They just name them?)

They just name them.

MEDICINE MAN PRAYS AND SINGS DURING DELIVERY

(Did anybody ever tell you about birth before you had your baby?)

Well, uh, nobody ever telled me, but I suppose my grandmother knew a whole lot to tell me. You know they want you to come and see them. I was just a little girl and I remember a lot of things: I use to always to always manage to be the first one to hold the baby that they delivered.

(They delivered a lot of babies?)

Uh huh. I remember they use to sing, the men use to sing while the woman is
