kite. And persume they still do that I guess. Guess they get that peyote from Mexico I don't know where they get it. But there are a lot of them Indians that are just as nice as they can be. Couldn't find a fired of nicer. Now It's so much different then it was then, they're move educated I don't say they work any better then they did then, but they're better educated and they look nicer. And they've learned to live in a house that's something they didn't know whoto do then.
