

was going to pay you several thousand dollars a year?)

Well, it didn't seem to bother me too much about how much I was getting.

Because of - I know that - I just can't say how I did feel, Bob, but I know I didn't feel too much like it - they were coming in - so much as they have. I think for that reason I wouldn't say that people really was overcome - this financial.

(Do you remember when you bought your first car?)

Yes. I remember when I first bought car, in 1917.

(What kind was it?)

It was a Buick. And ah - Buick Phaeton they call it, I think.

(Ah - open, kind of top, and ah - touring car.)

Yeah. Touring car.

(Do you remember what you paid for it?)

No, I don't - I don't remember.

(What ah - when did you buy your next car then?)

I think it was later on - sometimes - a couple of years from there.

(Now did the Osages at this time, Mr. Iron, begin traveling more to other parts of Oklahoma and other states, after oil was discovered here, and they were able to buy automobiles. Did they start making trips to other states - visiting other Indians?)

Well, I don't think their visits were among other tribes, but they mostly went to the mountains.

(What mountains?)

Colorado.

(They spent their summers in Colorado where it was cool?)

Yeah. (Laughter)
