

have noticed not only this new group, but there's been other groups before these. So you people, I think, also have tried to do your best to show them the hospitality that you could. So I think all in all, everybody got along fairly well, and I know some of these students came from along ways off, and before, so Dr. Bittle, we be thinking about you and also your family, I don't know if your family is going with you?

Dr. Bittle: Yeah, they are.

They are? So you tell them we'll be thinking of all of you all and maybe in our prayers your safe return back to Oklahoma.

M.C.--It's kind of a pleasure to us to get together here tonight. To give you a little what we can to entertain your students. But Indian lives are like we've having some of the finest Indians in our community to understand their ways and modern way. So Dr. wherever you may be we always think of you here, as part of our family including your family we want to think that way. And so someday if you have a little time just write us a little card and we'd like to know just how your making out. Thanks again.

Dr. Bittle: Thanks you all.

M.C.--I'd like to address this to the members as you know, the week is full of invitations and we like to take them one at a time. You know, we've been invited to Colorado again. It's not very far off, right around out next month, not quite a month. Anyway, we'd like to get together say once a week to raise additional funds to put with what they are gonna give us. I understood they gonna send us a contract and also expense money. Some of you members are familiar with our rules and regulations being down there. They are not strict. But we'd like the members to
