

said she wrote 165 checks that day. That was to their help. You see he takes in, he contracts big buildings. He doesn't fool with the little buildings. Schools and these big--like Sears and Roebuck, and he's built several businesses for them. He built this one in down here at Lawton. That Sears and Roebuck building. He just does certain things though. He doesn't put up the frame work. He handles the finishing lumbers, glass and everything for a home, metal work. He got that through this company that he started in. And I don't suppose he knows what he's (unintelligible) he gave $35,000 for his home and furnished it, for himself (unintelligible)
