

different.

(Oh, they are?)

Yeah, but they ain't any, now. They don't...lost them, they lost 'em.

(Oh, they have?)

Umhummm.

(Could you tell me about what Indian pumpkins were like?)

Oh, the Indian pumpkins were like--light color and greenish looking.

And they not long like that. They kinda round. That's the kind they use to have.

(How big were they?)

Well, just about that size.

(About like a bowling ball?)

Yeah. Yeah.

(Well, how did they come to lose em?)

Well, didn't save the seeds, I guess, I don't know, but they use to have them--own pumpkin.

(Did they have 'em when you were a little girl?)

Yeah, when I was and when I was big, too. They lost the seeds not long ago.

Maybe, they didn't raise 'em and maybe they didn't have any more seeds.

(Do you remember when the last time that you ever had any of that Indian pumpkin?)

Well, I wouldn't know. It's been long time. Long time.

(But, was it after you were married?)

Umhummm.

(You had some of that pumpkin, still, after you were married?)

Well, we raised them. Me and my sister raised them. But I don't know. Oh,
