

Mr. T.: Well had you thought this might happen?

Mrs. E.: We think it every time, if it comes up for sale we don't know whether its going to be sold or not. We hope they will be able to get a good price for it when they sell it.

Mr. T.: So your visit the next day and the contact this day, the 27th came about because Mr. O'Field came to your office for this review?

Mrs. E.: Yes.

Mr. T.: We are on the record with that?

Referee: Yes sir. And he came into the county office at the County Department's request on 5-27?

Mrs. E.: Well, I had been to see him a couple of times before that and couldn't find him and I left a note, or someone had told him, I don't know just how it happened, but anyhow, he came to the office, he wanted to know what I wanted with him and I.....

Mr. T.: And what you wanted was his monthly review.

Mrs. E.: 6 months.

Mr. T.: You were not aware of what had happened in connection with his land?

Mrs. E.: I wondered about it but...

Mr. T.: Is that customary? In a case where a clients land is up for sale and the date was, how far back? 14 days? 13 or 14 days not to notify them?

Mrs. E.: Well, I don't know, this is my first experience with a client having land up for sale.

Mr. T.: Oh, is that right? Now, let me be sure what this means. Mr. O'Field was contacted concerning his decision we've clarified that part. And the remainder of the sentence reads, and the necessity of closing his case since he was not willing to make his resources available to him. And this is on May 27th and May 28th he was contacted for the purpose, is that a fair thing to say about what actually happened? and is that what you mean in this sentence that he was contacted for the purpose of telling him of the necessity of closure of his case? Or are you talking about two different visits or earlier visits?

Mrs. E.: No. It was on the 28th that I told him, the next day after he was in the office.

Mr. T.: You didn't tell him on the 27th?

Mrs. E.: No.

Mr. T.: Alright. So that on the 27th when he was in your office you didn't tell him the decision?

Mrs. E.: No.

Mr. T.: But you did tell him on the 28th when you went out to his house?

Mrs. E.: Yes.
