

Mrs. P.: She lives with Dan.

Mr. T.: With Dan Proctor.

Mrs. P.: Yes.

Mr. T.: How long have you lived there?

Mrs. P.: 25 years.

Mr. T.: That's all the questions I have.

Your name is Dan Proctor?

Mr. P.: Yes.

Mr. T.: And your address is Rt. 1, Colcord?

Mr. P.: Yes.

Mr. T.: And the previous witness, Miss Sharolet Proctor is your aunt?

Mr. P.: Yes.

Mr. T.: And she lives with you and your wife?

Mr. P.: Yes.

Mr. T.: And she's lived with you about 25 years?

Mr. P.: Ever since I been back from service, been married.

Mr. T.: Was Miss Proctor living with you at the time that the sale of her house, of her property came up?

Mr. P.: Um hum.

Mr. T.: And were you there when the discussions to talk about it was held?

Mrs. P.: Dan said that she just got a letter.

Mr. T.: Do you know where that letter came from?

Mrs. P.: He said he doesn't remember where the letter came from, whether it came from the man who was renting the land or from the Bureau of Indian Affairs in Muskogee.

Mr. T.: And what did that letter say?

Mrs. P.: He says he doesn't remember what the letter said. He said she still might have letter too.

Mr. T.: Was it about the sale of her land?

Mrs. P.: He says he doesn't know for sure but he thinks it was just a paper for leasing land. He says that Lucille does all the reading and he doesn't pay that much attention to it.

Mr. T.: That is Mr. Proctor's wife?
