

I thought that. I didn't pay no attention to it. I just looking the other way. She come up to me, says, "You going to do what I said?" I said, "Let her finish it, she's working." Boy, she just took me and set me at the corner. She punish me for not picking that trash for her.

(Did you ever hear of a Presbyterian preacher named Cregess or Previs? He was down around Ft. Sill and Apache.)

No. I don't know. I don't remember.

(I heard he had something to do with Cache Creek Mission School up there.)

Uh-huh.

(But I never have heard of it, I was just curious as everybody else would be.)

Uh-huh.

(End of Tape.)