

(Did you know Eden Anderson?)

(Pop: Eden Anderson? Yeah.)

That was my uncle's boy.

(And he remember Rosco York.)

Yeah, I know Rosco York.

(Pop: James Patterson?)

Yeah, Yeah married that Mary Holmo.

(Pop: You know Mary Holmo?)

Yeah.

(Pop: Holmo, that was Mary ^Holmo sister --)

(Was Arron there?)

I don't think he is.

(I guess Mary was older then Arron? Your older then Arron aren't you?)

(Pop: Mary Holmo? Yeah.)

(Arron's older then you? Was the matron and the teachers, was they all white people?)

Miss Rhoda was Indian and (--) was Indian and the rest of them was white.

(Did you have Bible classes?)

Well, we use to go to Sunday School every Sunday.

(Did you have work to do, everybody have--)

Only clean up the house and make up the beds before we go to breakfast.

(At Chilocco everybody had a work assign ent and some of the big girls worked in the sewing room and made--they made dresses and shirts and everything. I was in up there the 7th grade when I was up there. And they called them--we were the littliest ones up there--they put us in the mending room. We mended socks --)
