

I didn't know what it was that they sent me over there, but later I find out that this woman was mean to me and they didn't want me to be at home--be mistreated so they put me over there.

(Where were you born Emma?)

I was born at Bently.

(Do you got a role number.

Yeah.

(What is it?)

12107.

(12107. She remembers hers too. Where is your land?)

I sold it. It was way back in the bottom there where--the agent said it wouldn't do for me to live up there by myself so I sold it, and got this place. (--)

(To light up your place at night.)

Yeah, you know, here a while back I went to the hospital and stayed two weeks and two days and when I come home somebody had opened that door and come in. But I didn't miss anything only he--I never did use them two beds, I always sleep here, you know, and I had it made up and somebody slept on the bed. So I just taken this stuff to the laundry and had it all washed because it was clean but then it needs it after somebody slept on it. So I took it to the laundry and--the blanket and sheets and pillow slips.

(Who is the agent? Where does he come from?)

Durant, I think.

(Nancy: Mr. McDool? Ardmore.)

Ardmore, well I didn't know.

(Nancy: His name is Mr. McDool, Dan McDool.
