

all over that field. They just close it up. And this trouble they had, it been five years, be four years--been five years lettin' me know what about it, this week. I've got some of it on that royalty. But I haven't signed yet. I got five hundred dollars, but they ain't paid this year. And I've got a little money yet. And they pay me hundred dollars a month--service. I been drawing year now--over year--two years. Over a year. Yeah. I been (not clear) to stay home with her papa and girls--two girls there, they go to school here.

(Interruption)

(We are resuming after lunch with talking with Mr. Woods. Earlier, when we quit before lunch, he was talking about being in the Cavalry. But--I am going to ask him now, he's just been talking about service in World War I. He mentioned the date November 11, and the 11th minute he said he heard, the 11th day and he was trying to think, I believe you were talking about the Kaiser--?)

Company E. Company E.

(Company E you were in.)

Captain Locke was Choctaw (not clear) up here at Antlers. Used to stay in National Guard all the time.

(Captain Locke?)

Victor Locke--two brothers. Brothers name is Victor Locke and Ben Davis--Davis Locke, he's a Captain. All Choctaw--he's Choctaw--half Choctaw.

(Was that a Choctaw Company you were in?)

Yeah. I was in Choctaw Company all--they wasn't Creek, Cherokee, all--Five Civilized--all in there. Just two Choctaw in there.

(Two Choctaws in an all Indian Company?)

Yeah--

(Or Batallion--?)
