

a good time. We had a carriage house I guess is what it was, kind of a loft thing, and had a buggy underneath, or a place for a buggy, more of a garage.)

(Pop: Raise an boy too, Andy Wright. Do remember him?)

No, I don't remember him.

(Pop: Andy Wright. One Juanita married.)

(That's the first time I ever knew that Preacher Cobb raised Andy Wright. We'll have to go see him. He'll know when Preacher Cobb died won't he?)

(Pop: He--- (--))

(Pop and Nancy Thompson have just been talking about old Spencer which was a school for boys that burned up and Nancy said lot of boys burned and passed by in the middle of the night going to Eagle Town, past Whelock, she was going north east. She was at Whelock then. Did they rebuild that school?)

I don't think they did cause it's closed up. No they never did.

(Never did rebuild it. Did you know anybody who went to the girl's school at Tuskahoma?)

No, I didn't.

(Well, pop said his cousins, who were your cousins who went there?)

Bell went there and Lela.

(Bell Fraiser?)

Yeah.

(Lela Fraiser. Well that's the first time I ever heard--I knew Specner burned but I didn't know that any boys were killed in the fire.)

(Unintelligible)

--and they said the school house burned up. And part of the boys burned
