

and said they all told us to travel along because there was no train nothing like that. They had to walk. And they told them they was going to Eagle Town. Some of them was and some of them going to a different place. Several Indians--boys it was in the night too.

(Burned in the night: Was that a two story building?)

I don't know. I guess it was. Like our's was you know. It was a two story house.

(Two or three pop says. Who'd you know that was there then?)

(Pop: I didn't know anybody but Lee McClure.)

(Lee McClure Was he the one you were sayin' climbed out the window and came down on a sheet?)

(Pop: He just got ahold of the sheet tnd the mattress together and fastened the sheet so it wouldn't flare open and hung it out the window and jumped on this mattress and floated to the ground.)

(You corrected one of the names there. You said someones name would be Whistler instead of Fraiser.)

(Pop: That was Bell's name before she married.)

(Bell Wistler.)

(Whistler who was there --)

(unintelligible)

(So it would have been Bell Whistler and Lela Whistler who were in school at Tuskahoma. Well, now when I was talking about hopin' that we might find some fellow that had been at Spencer when it burned, you didn't think so but how old would Lee McClure be? If he lives?)

(Pop: Well, Lee is just about five years older then I am.

(So, if he was five years older then you are, he could have been about 82, so we may find some Choctaw who was there at that time. You mean
