

(What is your name?)

My name is John Chibitty.

(You say you were born right around in this area?)

Yeah. I was born around this area here.

(Where exactly?)

I was born down there at Lake Lawtonka. That's where I was born....at the bottom of the lake.

(Did you have many people in your family?)

Yeah, we have...I have my father, and mother, and grandma, and my sister and myself.

(What was your father's name?)

My father's name was Chibitty. "Chi-bitah."

(Is that the right way to pronounce it?)

Yeah, that's the right way to----but it's different from the way I had when I was in school. Spelled different. Where I went to school they said that was the right way to spell the name.

(Like "Chibitty?" )

Yeah.

(What about your mother's name, what was that?)

My mother's name was _____

(Were they both Comanche?)

Yeah, both of them were Comanche.

(Now let's see, you said your grandmother lived with you? )

Yeah, we all living together.

(What was her name?)

_____, my grandmother's name. Oh they got long names.

(What did it mean, like your grandmother's name?)
