

as far as they went.

(Did you ever hear of a Rev. Creegis, or Creevis?)

Yeah.

(I didn't know how to pronounce it, is it Creegis or Creevis?)

Creevis, I think.

(Yeah, I talked to Mary Poafpybitty the other day and she said she went over there?)

Yeah, we was in there. Some of them was...about my age I guess.

And ah..and that's the way it is, before my dad work there.

We waited around here all the time.

(What did your father do? Did he have land that he worked or did he have a lease man...or...?)

No, there was no lease man in them times. There wasn't too many lands. This place right through here was open in them days. There wasn't no place...no white people around here working.

(Did he have horses or cattle or..?)

Yeah, he had lots of cattle, horses...Lots of horses. Lot of these Indian ponies.

(Where did he get them?)

Well, I just don't know. I seen him when I growed up. They ain't like the big horses, they small horses.

(Are they from around this part of the country, the Indian ponies?)

Yeah, they was around this..oh, mostly Indians have them horses through here and then a lot of cattle too.

(How much was one Indian pony...back when your father and them.. how much were they worth then?)
