

(While you were still on it?)

Yeah, still holding...across the creek. My dad and my brother of mine they had to run after me and rope that horses.

(What kind of rope did you use?)

Regular ropes. Regular store ropes.

(Did you say you have a sister in your family?)

Yeah, I have a sister.

(Was she younger than you were?)

Yeah, she was younger than I was. She used to live out here too.

Down there across the road.

(What is the name of the creek that runs down this way?)

((About 100 yards west of Mr. Chibitty's house.))

Well, I don't know, I don't know what the name of it is....but they got it they got the map of it at Ft. Sill.

(Is there a Comanche name for it?)

I think so, I think it got a name but I can't tell you what it was.

I seen it one day, when my boy and my wife went down there to look around...that museum. I don't know when they open up but you could find out there what the name of it is.

(Did you ever hear of a Comanche named Tenewerka?)

Who?

(Tenewerka?)

No. You know there's alot of people I don't know.

(What about Quanah Parker?)

Yeah, I seen him.

(What kind of man was he?)
