

this young girl, young lady, she said, "Well, I'm wondering. This man always tell me, 'all right, all these things. You can do whatever you want to but you see I'm going to show you. You see this little brush here. It's some kind of a brush. I don't know what kind of a brush it is. They never did bring that out. But there's a brush there. Don't pull it out. Don't never do that. It is forbidden. You can't do that because somethings going to happen if you do." So this man he goes out and he goes hunting and everytime he brings these sinews, and she piles them up. Keeps piling them up, piling them up. And she was pretty well-taged young lady then. Well, this little boy here was pretty smart and one day he said, "I'm wondering why my husband don't want me to pull this little bush out. I want to know why. I believe when goes this time I'm going to go down there and pull it out and see what it is. I'm going to find out why he don't want me to." And when he went off, this old man of his, this woman here went over there, while the boys was playing around, this woman went over there and she said, "I'm going to pull this out and see what it is. Surely there won't be no trouble." So he went over there and he pull it up like that and just as soon as he pull it up theres a big hole in there going from up there down that way. (the he referred to is the woman) He looks down there, you know and he could see people look like they're moving arund down there. Down in that bottom land where she was from, see. Moving around down there. So she got lonesome and she said, "Well, from this day I'm going to put this back in there and I'm going to go and make me a rope. I'm going to make me a rope out there and I'm going to go and make me a rope. I'm going to make it out of the sinew and all that, hides and everything I can get ahold of. I'm going to make a rope and I'm going to make enough to tie onto a big place there and then I'm going to drop this down there. Just enough to go down there and drop on there and make a few layers down there on the bottom, on the ground to go down there where I was from and I'm going to go down with my child. I'm going to go. Nothing up here for me. Nobody here but just three of us." So one day she got enough and her man didn't know nothing about it. So
