

place now and they call it Burk Burnett. But he first worked first for Burnet as a cattle drover for nine years.

(Did he ever tell you much about that ?)

Oh, not a lot. He told about one incident. He was with a here. He said he had been with t is herd, I don't remember how long, it seems like he said for six months. They notified him that they were coming. He said that he was so anxious to see them people - - these men - - that he thought he saw them coming and he fixed a meal and everything for 'em and wasn't them. They didn't come till two days later; cause he was so anxious to see somebody,

(Did he ever talk about finding it very hard to go from cattle droving to farming ?)

No, he didn't. He worked on the job a lot. I think he worked on the railroad, and first one thing thing and another after he and mother married.

(That's real interesting.)

Guess I've been here about as long as anyone. Anyway, seventy four years.

(You sure don't look it.)

Well, I have got a son that is fifty-seven years old. Time tells on you all right.
