

Uh-huh. You know I haven't been south--I don't know two or three years now, but some of--you know that--you hear about that thing growing up east where they camp?

(I've never been there.)

(Mary's words not clear.)

(Yeah.)

You don't go by there.

(Haven't been by there, no.)

Way up that top. The first little creek east of (not clear)--the creek is called--(Mary is speaking to someone else also in Indian language).

(That's close to that Indian church over there. That's the right stuff.)

Yeah that's the right. There's sure lots over there. Uh-huh. They sure got lots over there.

(If we don't have time today, are you free tomorrow?)

We got time today.

(Well, you know what I'd really like to do is go out with you. If you've got the time, I've got the car.)

You know right now, it's a cool night we could walk. We have to walk for that stuff. (Mary is calling to someone else--someone named George. She says that George knows where to find the herbs they are looking for easily. She had a hard time finding them.) Tomorrow is Friday. I have to go in town tomorrow.

(Well, could we just go out or--?)

Lets see what--Friday or Saturday--you be right where--where the place you going to stay?

(Oh I can stay anywhere, I can sleep in my bus. I sleep anywhere I want to.)

You could stay here over-night.

(Well you said you have to go away tomorrow, don't you?)
