

time and doctor them. And then she wait on them. She even cook for them and get them eat and because they have to stay two or three days here before she get through with them. And they promise her this and that. They don't give it to her. That's why I don't think it's right that's what he told them. And everybody knows that you have to bring your things you use, your own materials and cigarette paper. Not the cigarette paper or corn shuck and then it's real corn shuck!

(Do they give the Bull Durham and corn shuck?)

Yeah.

(They give it to you.)

Yeah they give it to me. Then the green roots. No matter if it's just half a yard. You could get it a quarter or fifty cents worth. It goes that way with the smoke because the medicine you use is it's not green leaves and the cloth is supposed to be green. What he told them, and they said, "Well we'll come and pay her. We ain't got no money right now." And she said there's many a people that owes her lots of money. And that green root it costs her money. She gets tired you know. She said lots of times it get so hot she be in there doctoring them. And she be just sweating and tired out by the time she gets through and then she goes all through that work for nothing. You can go to from here, you sick, if you want to, Lawton to hospital. One treatment will cost--I don't know but quite a bit. Two or three times when--everytime you go up there you have to pay. We got Indian hospital but lot of people don't go there. They don't know how to treat this crooked mouth, eyes sitting like that. They say in a day, two or three days, they say she cures it in two days because I know I've seen it with my own eyes. That's what he said. And now you're like that. One woman they caught her hand. They just left her here a week. She got well in two or three days. They never did come after her. Her boy just left her here all week, over
