

old. Yeah. Looks -

(Cherokee dance is different than regular square dance?)

Oh, Yeah.

(Men and women dance together though, didn't they?)

Yeah. You know Indian dance, they just lined up. Woman on this side and men on this side. They just round circle, you know. And far as they stand right there and a man and a woman standing there, they started to dance then.

(One at a time?) (Jig?)

Yes.

(Jigging?)

Yeah. Sure was jig. When they through they go this way and nother one standing right next to 'em they started dancing again. When they through they go -

(They go to the end of the line?)

Yeah. That's funny ain't it?

(Was there any kind of music besides fiddlin'?)

Yeah.

(Guitars?)

Yes. Fiddle and guitar.

(Piano?)

No. First time I know it. They don't have no guitar. You know when had fiddle, they playin' right there and man settin' in here and they had two sticks. They do like this on a fiddle.

(Oh, they did?)

Yeah.

(Just two sticks?)

Yeah.
