

(What did they do? Beat on a wood or something or a chair?)

No. right there on the fiddle.

(Right there on fiddle?)

Unhunh. On the string.

(Oh)

Yeah. He just stand right there and do like this.

(And take two sticks and beat on the fiddle strings?)

Unhunh. And do like this.

(Did somebody else have a bow that they play along with it?)

Yeah. Keep on playing.

(I never heard about two sticks before.)

Yeah. That's what they'd do. Oh, that's funny. And I never did know how long they get started that guitar - and no piano.

(I guess they haven't had that kind of Cherokee dance in a long time, have they?)

Yeah. That sure was a playin'. They just pat, you know like this. And that's what they dance, I guess. And they call - Indian they call you know.

(Call in Indian?)

Unhunh. Call in Cherokee. Yeah.

(But that was a lot of fun.)

Yeah. They said they sure like it. Lot of difference. And this time there was a fiddle dance, I mean a square dance. That's a lot different too, Ain't it?

(Unhuun. Yeah its a lot different)

They just run in square dance. I mean -

YARN STOCKINGS

(Did they have any kind of Indian - what we'd call Indian costumes
