

I'm stay home by self, you know my husband been working. I don't care nothing. In summer come early - they coming early. They say " Lets go hunt the greens. Lets go hunt the greens. We cook." We run around in woods, you know. Hunt some greens, you know, wild onions - somethin' like that or poke salad. I know they wont cook up here cause I believe that aint no lard or grease at home, you know. And know how can cook.

(Laughter)

(They know that you cook here?)

Yeah. That's what I thought. I just laugh. Sometime we have crawdad and right there big creek. I mean branch out there. Used to be have a lot a crawdad.

(They're good eating aren't they?)

Unhunh. And fish - little fish you know 'bout this long. And they come up here and cook.

MORE ABOUT DANCING

(You were telling while ago bout - there used to be a stomp dance back over here back on the mountain.)

Unhunh. 'bout two mile and half.

(You went over there as a little girl. Remember?)

Yeah. I went over there and stay all night. Set up. Set there and run all night. Come back and I'm sleepy and I bump my head. (Laughter)

(Were you scared?)

Oh, yeah. (Laughter)

(Scared of the Indians?)

Yeah. I guess I'm funny. , Another thing I tell you about. Me and Mamma went - my oldest sister lived way yonder. And you can't tell which way it was - You see that water out there?
