

One is too old.

(They out here in pasture?)

(You got two horses?)

Yeah.

And hogs. Pen out in there, too, and sow.

(You've been awful nice to visit with me here this morning. I took a lot of your time and I appreciate it. Anything that you want to say special before we end this thing? About a thing in your Indian way of life around here? You have seen a lot of it..)

MORE ABOUT OLD DAYS

(Would you rather have the old days than the way it is now? Which do you like best? The old times or that now?)

Right now.

(You like now better?)

Oh yes.

(Why?)

'Cause, old time you mean?)

(Unhunnh) (Do you like now better than old times?)

Unhunnh. Long time ago, you mean?

(Unhunnh)

I don't know. I can't say. But this time, it's all right I guess. It's too lonesome that's all. 'Cause peoples gone.

(You just don't have any get-togethers around here anymore, do you?)

Yeah.

(Getting together?)

Unhunnh.

(The churches still pretty strong out in here?)
