

Because of this, Son of man if you follow my orders and perform these rituals. The last thing that I must ask you to do before I tell you what is to happen, is that you must take the last third that you have tied to your belt under your shirt, you take this pouch taken from your belt to the holy grounds, take a sharp instrument and cut it up into as many parts as you possibly can. While you are doing this, think about the unruly people, the people that have destroyed my laws. Ezekiel because you have done this ritual, there will be a third of these people destroyed by sword. A third of them will be destroyed by starvation, the other third will be destroyed by the conflict created among themselves. But there will be some saved to carry on. But they will never forget the reduction of man and the punishment of man and the destruction of every accomplishment that he has made. You will remember this ritual as long as you live, and you will pass these performances on to the younger people so that they may in the future, if I come to them in the spiritual way, that they will feel the need to perform a ritual to be used against unruly people. This may be done. These rituals will be for your tribes' benefit. For your people's benefit. The story goes on to say that the actual destruction took place. But prior to the destruction a person dressed in white linen appeared before the Holy church and took from the church the Holy fire. The symbol of life was taken prior to the destruction. The Cherokees believe that this fire reappeared again after they came to this continent, the Holy fire, the Sacred fire. This is the story that the Cherokees tell and have retold time after time, making sure that it doesn't get to the people, because--the people on the outside, who wouldn't understand, and it's disguised under the name of superstition in the English speaking world. If today, if we was to see a Cherokee person performing certain voodoo rituals we would call, let's stop and think, these rituals are in the scriptures. It came to man from God.. And that is seriously something to think about before we say or pass a judgement on the Indian people and what they believe. Because they do have the wisdom, they are moved spiritually to understand the world about them,
