

to her and--. They took her and they took her to a little swamp place there. And the grass was way up high. So they took her. They took her to a little swamp place there. And the grass was way up high. So they took her in there and they told her that they would take her to water. And they talked to her in her own Kiowa language. They talked to her. So when they took her over there, well, there was some water there. So she drunk water there and they said "We will see that you get some food." They said, "We'll see that you get some food. We'll have to bring it to you late in the evening. We can't come in the daytime and give it to you. We will have to come of the evening when it is real dark to bring you the food. But there is plenty of water here. You stay here till we come here and see you again. Those people, came back and brought some raw liver and kidney and stuff that way. They brought it to her. Of course she was starving, you know. Nothing to eat for that many days. So she went ahead and eat it. And they been peeking around during that night and daytime, well, they would tell her to hide in a certain place. And she hide in there and until wheever it got dark, then these people would come back with some more food. But she had plenty of water then. That's all she had--good fresh clean water. She was drinking that. So it went on. It went on for days. It went on for days. Finally it came to the tenth day.

ALTAIDL'S PARENTS SEEK HELP FROM THE SPIRIT OF A DEAD MAN:

So her daddy and her mother, they went out and they told, you know them days way back there, they could bring the spirit back to the people that they want to know something. That there was a certain man there during those days that he can call in a spirit. And the sprit would come and he will call in a spirit. And the spirit would come and he will call a certain person's name, that he wants him to come. So that was on the tenth day. So that morning early, he went out and talked to the man that can bring
