

that small tipi he had inside. "Hurry up! Hurry up!" he said. "I'm busy. We're busy people," he said. "Where we are at is good. You people like here," he said, "And where you are all at is no good." But he said, "Up, there where we are at--everything is good. Nothing--nothing there to suffer. Nothing to worry--hungry or anything else." But he said, "Before I was coming," he said, "they were ready to go out hunting." That's what this man said who was dead many years back there. So he said, "All right, I'm hungry. I want smoke." He said, "I'm hungry for smoke." "Now," he said, "Hurry up! Let me have that smoke. I want some smoke." Well, that man in inside there, he got it and he lit it and he give it to him. And he started smoking it. When he got through he handed it to him and said, "All right now, tell me what you called me for. What you want me here for." The reason why", he said, "That we called for you--we lost a young--young girl. A young girl we lost. And we want you to tell us if you all seen her somewhere," he said, "The time she got lost." He said, "Yes, Yes," he said. "We know where she's at. We know where she's at." He said, "You take the seven hills." He said, "There is seven hills. In the morning, go before daylight. Go early and go on up there and when you come to the seventh hill," he said, "You all stand there." And he said, "We'll bring her out in the open. And when we bring her out in the open, then you all", he said, "You all go over there and go ahead and catch her. but he said, "She's pretty wild. About along like she's going crazy like. So you all are going to have to catch her some way. But he said, "you'll see us bring her out of those swamps but in the open where you can go ahead and bring her in home.

ALTAIDL IS FOUND AND CURED OF HER MADNESS:

So that morning early, on the eleventh day--morning--they went on down there and got to the seventh hill. They waited there. Finally they looked down there and sure enough there she was, going out in the open, running
