

They look into the high center of the river was flowing in the bottom. And he told the quails, "Lay (on) both sides of the road." The road goes this way. "You lay on here, and some of them over (here). When he comes this way, we all scare him. He gonna fall in the water." After a while, all at once, they br-r-r-r-r-r-r, like that (imitating noise of quail taking flight). I guess you heard it. B-r-r-r-- and you get scared, don't you? They scare you. That's a Sainday story. "Wah!" He throwed his arrows and bow and fell in a big ditch! He fell in the water. It just laid him out. Oh, he was laying by the river and the water was flowing. After a while he woke up and he looked up and them quails were all just looking at him. Now. He got up. He said, "That old thing--" Zapodl means ghost. "That zapodl! Where'd that zapodl go!" He looked up and all the quails was just sticking their heads like this--they just make fun of him. And that little quail said, "Now I scare you. I thought you were a big chief. "You old thing! You--!" Oh, he was so mad but he couldn't do nothing. That's the way they cheat him. They cheat somebody. They cheat him. Oh, he just don't know what to act, he was so mad! Now, when the life is going on, everybody is going to get scared of quails like that. They're gonna get scared. Now, today, it's that way. One time I was coming on a wagon, way back. When they flew, the horses were always just rearing. They bad ones, them quails. Yeah. That's the way Sainday story goes. Now it's two chapters.

(That's right. Do you know any more?)

SAINDAY AND THE BEAR THAT ATE HIS PLUMS

There's lots of them. Now he was coming. This is the third story. And he see lots of bushes. Plum bushes. He saw the plum bushes. He was coming. Maybe there's some plums. He went. He come to call on them. The plum bushes were just loaded. "My, but it's good plums! Now I got something to eat." And he went and he eat all he want. He save some of them. He say, "I'm gonna save
