

that don't go play. They don't send her. Let's go and ask them if they let us have her. Let's take her. Yeah." They went over there and peep in the doorway. And her mother said, "What you want, girl?" "We want your little girl. We want to take her out there to play. Way out there." And that girl said, "Yeah, daddy and mama, I want go play. I like to play outside. You'll always don't let me go. I want to go with them." She cried. She wanted to play out there.) And that man said, "Now, let her go. Let her go play. Now you take care of this girl." "Yeah, we take care of her. We watch her." She's audematon (favorite child). Now they took her. They took her. And when gets (there), oh, she enjoyed the play. She was having a good time. But after a while they said, "Oh, let's go to the river bank and they said, "Let's play a game. Some of you girls play bear and chase us, like make a little bear comb set up." They always put the dirt up like that. That call it "bear comb." The bear woman got a little children's sack and she fill it and chase them. They always chase them. When she chase them she bite them. Now. They go and they play like that. And that little girl says, "Let me, let me, let me be a little play bear. I be the bear!" That audematon said that. She went to them. There's a bear there. He took her up. He just hold her. She looked at it. Oh, it was a bear! Oh, she was so scared! Because she's audematon and she don't go out that way and this happen to her. Now. He said, "You're going to be my girl." Oh, she just got fainted. After a while she woke up. She don't know what--she never scream or nothing. She scared of it. He said, "You're going be my girl. You're going be my girl friend. My friend." Now, her face was painted up because she's audematon and they dressed (her) up and painted (her) up. He lick this paint off. "Now go on." She went (back to her friends). The girls said, "What's the matter? You
