

down and listen. But you people--some of you people just run back there behind the pulpit--back there behind the people. That's supposed to be a holy place. When the Catholic people are holding a service, you can't go back there. But these other churches, the preacher be standing there and there's all these other people behind him.

(End of Tape)