

Charlie: That 's just what I was trying to think of. I can't hardly call it - his name was Johnny somebody. He was a big man. He was married to Old Lady - - Apache - - tawguday

(That wouldn't be Apache John, would it?)

Yeah. That's the one. That's him. Apache John. How'd you know?

(Well, you said Alden, and I knew he - -

Ruth: Did you tell her about the time you got witched by that old lady?

(Tell me about that.)

Charlie: Well, you know. We were setting down, and this old lady, Old Lady Two-Hatchet -- that's the old one - -. She Kiowa. We was sitting down eating you know, and I was gonna play. I was in a hurry. Mother said, "You all hurry up and eat, But don't go behind grandma when she's eating meat." You ask any Indian and he'll tell you - - If he's right, he'll tell you the truth. Said "Don't get behind her. Because, if something happen - -" So I got through eating. And I was in a hurry and I run back there, you know, and when I run back there something just throwed me like that. That was all. I didn't know nothing. So my mother - picked up a shawl - - that's what they like, you know - - and just put it on her. She said, "Oh, she said, "I'm sorry the way this happened." In Kiowa. And she turned around and they got me up there and she blowed on me and worked on me and I come to. And next time I never do that anymore. That's right. This old lady, whenever any of us get sick or anything, we go after her. Or we go after this Johnny @ @ what you call him?

(Apache John?)

Charlie:: Yeah. We go get him, or we go get Little Joe or we get Old Man Ahtone. Jim Ahtone. We get him. I know all them boys. My dad, right up here-
