

preachers, they all got up and said that they all went to different colleges. Some, to Oklahoma City Peniel College, Nazarene Peniel College here. So, when they come to him, they ask him what college did he went to and where was the college located at. They ask him and then he said, "The college that I went to was located between Indianahoma, Oklahoma, and Cache, Oklahoma. They said "What was the name of the college and - well, he said "The name of the college was the Knee-ology college." They said, "How come they named the college Knee-ology college?" Well, he said, "I got down on my knees and went to school. Had my knee and a stump for a desk." And they ask him "Who was your teacher?" He said "Jesus Christ was my teacher." And that time when he said that, there was - - that building was full up in the balcony when he said that. Oh, you seen them white guys went to shouting and throwing their hats up. And he was a man with braids, you know. And that's where he got his diploma, from Jesus Christ, he said. From that time he started preaching.

(How old was he?)

He preached 35 years and I don't know, when he died he was 87 or 88. So from that time you could know how old he was when he became a Christian. He must be over 50. And when he must be pretty well annointed from on high when he became a preacher. Seem like he understand that bible better than educated white preacher. And they ask him question and he'll go ahead and answer them just as fast as they ask him questions and every question they ask him was right. They O.K'd that. The educated preachers from different states, they O.K'd him. And they stamped approval on him that they would go ahead and give him license to preach. And he went places. From that time they took him to Walters. They took him to Altus. They took him to Lawton. They took him to Oklahoma City. They just took him everywhere to preach, you know. And that was wonderful the way he got started. When he learned the bible, it didn't take him over three months - - when they give him license. And that was wonderful the way he done. Everybody admired the
