

take pity on me and take me with him. That's the way I learn those things from him. I learn a lot of things through him. Lot scriptures that he read in the Bible, I still got it in my memory, and the songs that he sing, I still remember those.

(Did he preach against the peyote church?)

No. He just let it alone. He didn't say it's bad. He didn't say it was good. He just quote that scripture that the Lord told him through the scripture, not to take any other god before him. He didn't try to preach against the peyote members. Only he said that us Christians, us preachers, we can't break that peyote way. He said, "The members of the peyote peoples, they the ones got to stop it." Question comes to him, he says, "Why?" How they going to stop it because they're members of the peyote? They the members of the American Native Church. How we going to break it?" He say, "You really want to know?" He say, "Yeah." He said, "Well, one of the peyote members is going to go in that peyote tent when he is drunk and he's going to raise cain; probably tear the peyote tent up and the law will come there and they going to ask him, "Why you done that? You one of the members. How come you done that?" And that's where he broke the rules. Then they going to have a Court over it and probably they might stop it. He must have a knowledge of some sort of - - in the way of the Lord. He takes his time about tell peoples how to be Christian, you know, and how things going to run. He even said today - - way back yonder about 15 or 20 years ago, he even said, "Right now, today, according to our Bible, the Jewish peoples are going back to Jerusalem by hundreds. It's written in the Bible." He says, "It's near to the coming of our Lord." He always say, "It's nigh." He said "Right now, today, over there in Wall Street, the Jews are head of the Wall Street. He's got that money sacks ready, he's fixing to close it up. And he's going to take all the silver back to Jerusalem.. Now you don't see any silver dollars in Oklahoma." He Says "Pretty soon the half-dollars going to leave." Then you know that the coming of the Lord is nigh. Then you better get ready." And he says, "One of these days, you know that the coming of the Lord
