

(What do they cut their skin here for?)

When he dies, they just take it off. Cut it--just take it off.

(When people see that do they know that this is going to happen to somebody?)

I don't know. They can wear it under their skin (clothes) down here, but I think it was usually right in here. (chest) Right in here.

Anywhere on their leg where it won't show, but I seen one man and I said, "What you wear this for?" When I was little girl, and he didn't say nothing. Old Man. He was witching somebody like that. Long many years after that I found out that they were doing that. They do that because my grandmother--and after they die--I guess they satisfied after they die.

(If you were really done wrong, could you do that?)

I don't think I would do that. Because I'm going to be punished if I ever did, Gods going to punish me. Never reach heaven.

(Just thinking about it, could you do it, not that you would?)

I don't know. I don't think about it much. The way the Bible reads--because the Bible says "Thou shall not kill". You can't steal too. Can't steal. That what I learn. Don't steal nothing from nobody.

(Are there any other kinds of things that your mother did or your uncle did that you don't do now?)

All I do is doctor. After they learn me.

(Do you know any kind of medicines that a man could use to get and girl he wanted?)

The man folks--I never did learn how they do it. But I don't know. I never did learn that. I don't like to talk to any man that says
