

Daisey: I was going to tell you what I done one time. "Do di" you not supposed to go behind her, and I did and she feel off backwards and my mother gave me the whorst whipping I ever got.

(Why aren't you supposed to go behind them? (Medicine men and women)?)

Daisey: I don't know.

Chas: They're medicine people.

Daisey: Medicine people.

Chas: If they eating meat--

(Yeah, Mary told me some of this stuff, but I didn't know why?)

Chas: you don't go in the back of them.

Jack: the one that's got the medicine, if that persons eating meat, you not supposed to go behind her but--because it's bad luck to the medicine man or medicine woman--bad luck to them.

Daisey: Makes them loose their power--

Jack: But if they say it's all right, well, it's all right.

(Jack the medicine man says--)

Daisey: When he's through eating you can.

(Are there many of those Old Way Medicine People around. I heard that Cornbread can doctor?)

Chas: Yeah.

(And there's Clyde Ahtape--)

Daisey: Ahtape, yeah. Clyde Ahtape and what-s--Crooked Neck.

Chas: Yeah, Charlie Crooked Neck.

Daisey: That's about all.

Chas: Lot of imitators.

Daisey: Lot of fakes anymore, but they the only ones. I seen a man that used to doctor with a bird. It used to come out, I don't know where he
