

(That's right.)

Cause they showed it to me. Now Albert Kelley (--) to breakfast I got up fairly early and I got up this morning I think I didn't awoken and. I got out there and got in the car and my foots gettin' pretty well, and it didn't hurt me a bit, just drive to town. And Albert come after me and he said, "I come after you and you was gone," he said. I saidm "Yeah, I drove my own car this morning." (--) You just take a man and tell him how (--) always drove it like me. And first old car I ever had was an old 1914.

(What kind was it?)

I had one of them old brass, see one pass here the other day. Had Brass all over there.. And you had to light them--an' they had a (--) light and something you light a match and you'd have to light that. I seen a boy have one. They claim they can get 4 or 5 thousand dollars for them. I seen a boy he liveds in Mt. View, fellow told me, Leon Walker down there at (--) and I seen him quite a bit and thing shined up--and they claim them dang things worth $5,000.

(Yeah, they'll do it.)

And there's a old boy that got one in -- but' it's not nice as the boy in Mt. View.
