

There's something to think about. Because many times you can go into homes, you can talk to them, but you can have a feeling that there is some reason you don't feel right. Might feel that you're not wanted. Might want to get rid of you as soon as possible. I just wondered, even church people, we have much to learn. And I've said many times the best place to get it is through the Bible. Read our Bible daily. Try to understand it. Prayer is another way. Constant with God through Jesus Christ. So it is that we can see and hear what Jesus was trying to get these people to understand. That he was sent from God. He was Son of God. Here was a family that believed, had faith in him. And we could do well to try to be like them. Strive to be like them. So they sent for Jesus and Jesus when he heard Lazarus was sick he got the word that the one you love, sick unto death. If he loved him we might say, "Why didn't he rush over there, try to help? But instead he went on about his business for two days before he went there. It must have been, maybe two or three days journey. Cause they were walking in those days. Traveled on foot. So it would take him two or three days to get there. Anyway, in the mean time, Lazarus had passed away. And Martha his sister, when she heard that he was coming, the word had come that he was on his way to meet him.--could have seen that as it was, he did it. I believe would have believed it. We would have had faith. --rest of us would have this understanding. And I believe that we if we study as we should we would understand, I think that's about all I have to say. Does anybody else like to say something about this?
