

day that Christ resurrected Lazarus, so of course we see his power there too.

Yes, he there's no doubt that he knew, he picked the time when he could, if there was a chance to reach these people, why it would be now.

--Jesus wept--scriptures, he had deep personal friendship with his people and I guess he was so moved and sorry for them that he wept at that time.

Well, see he knew these people--

This morning we got quite a few of those programs from Kent Ruth's in El Reno.

Mrs. McElhaney: (Some boys recite a verse) We brought our offering boxes for American for Christ--and three of them brought them. When we finish you can set them over there. This is a believe it or not, these are all grandchildren of Mary and Gus. That's really something. This isn't all of them is it? They still have some more. You better bring the rest of them, so we can see them. Well, I think that's wonderful isn't it? What if everyone brought their grandchildren. I think you met them. All right set your offering there.

CLOSE WITH LORD'S PRAYER IN UNISON

Maybe we should say Lord's prayer here.

--I don't know but the service won't be very long. On the back is your service. And the high school music department furnishes the music and

(Sings in Kiowa)

(END)