

T-200-2 (Second of Two Interviews)
RUTH BROWN DICKE, SEMINOLE
INTERVIEWED BY: B. D. TIMMONS
INTERVIEW DATE: MARCH 3, 1968
TRANSCRIBED BY: LINDA BUTLER
PROOFREAD BY: NONA KERR

GENERAL SUBJECT: COMMENTS ON SEMINOLES EARLY FAMILY LIFE

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

BRIEF INTRODUCTION

SHE WAS GROWN BEFORE SHE KNEW THAT HER FATHER WAS CHIEF OF-
SEMINOLES

HER EDUCATION AND EARLY DAY MEMORIES

C. R. ANTHONY GOT HIS "START" WORKING FOR HER FATHER AND HIS BROTHER

MORE DETAIL ABOUT HAND GAMES AND GENEROSITY OF CHIEF BROWN

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Ruth Brown Dicke was born August 5, 1905 at Sasakwa, Oklahoma. She attended school in the local school system until 1920 when she went to Sherman, Texas to school and then Chilocco in 1922 and stayed there for three years. Her father John F. Brown was chief of the Seminoles until his death in 1919. She met her husband, Sam Dicke, while they were both students at Chilocco.

Note: The other interview on this tape is: Sam Dicke, Cheyenne