

of up here at Boone or Cache Creek someplace?)

Because they live long time ago over there, you know. And see, when they cut this land, he got his land over there, him and his wife, my grandma, and that Big Whip.

(Wasn't that Big Whip, wasn't he a Mexican captive?)

Big Whip, I don't know.

(Did you ever hear anything--I was wondering if he was the one that had been captured when he was young?)

Yeah, long time, I don't know that. They talk about it, you know. But I don't know much in it.

(Well, did you have any brothers and sisters yourself?)

No. I ain't got none. Just me and my sister, that's all.

(Who is your sister?)

You know Blanche, Bill Achilta's mother?

(Oh, I didn't know that.)

That's my own sister. Just two of us.

(Did you have any brothers?)

Just me and my sister, that's all.

(Do you have an Indian name yourself? Did they ever give you an Apache name?)

No. Not that I know.

(What about Blanche?)

I don't know. My sister married Alowe (a name, not transcribed) she married Bill's father long time. I don't know them, you know. I just know Lillie, I don't know.

(She married who?)

She married Bill's father. Bill Achilta.

(What was his name? Bill Achilta's father's name?)

I don't know. I just know Wilbut. It's a long time, I don't know them.

(Now your sister's name was Blanche?)

Yeah.

(Did she have an Indian name?)

No.

MOLLY'S SCHOOLING

(Did you ever go to school?)

Yeah, me and my sister, we went to school long time, to Kiowa
