

Pezpezbe. May Pezpezbe.

(What does bézbizè mean?)

That something "iron"--"iron belt".

(Iron belt.)

Yeah. "Iron" belt. pezbezbe. Iron.

(Was there somebody named bézbizè. Is that the name of somebody?)

Uh huh. bézbizè. His mother's name. May bezbizè. His mother's name.

(Where did she get that name?)

I don't know--I was just young. And his mother name--I don't know how she get, May's mother. It's my half-sister, too, May's mother. Pezbezbe.

(May's mother is your half-sister?)

Yeah. And you know Josephine, Captain's wife? You know Captain?

(Yeah.)

His wife is my sister, too.

(What was May's mother's name?)

Pezbeze.

(All right. What was Captain's wife name?)

My sister? 'ista'é.

(Say that once more?)

'ista'é. Yeah, it's easy.

(What does that mean?)

Something that look like "stop" you know. Look like when you walk something, you stop.

(Now who was Josephine?)

Yeah, Josephine.

(Who is she? Who is Josephine?)

Apache.

(And Josephine is your half-sister?)

Yeah.

(Well, did you have the same mother?)

No. Different mother. Our mothers are half-sisters; Josephine's mother and my mother.

(Who is Josephine's father?)

I don't know. I never know that one. They long time ago, you know.
