

(Oh, well, what was that cross made of?)

Cedar wood, I think. Something like that--the cross. I don't know where they got--well, I don't know. It's been way--I don't know what the meaning of that cross is but they have that cross there. And cedar--green cedar.

(Was the cross very big?)

Yeah, it's pretty good size, the cross. I think there's two of them there.

(As big as a man?)

No. But it's a pretty good size cross. And cedar. And some other dance they had there. They're dancing around, singing songs. They got words in them. Just like this church songs they got today, these Indian church songs. They got words. Some of them words, they say, "In the future you going to see something. Smoke gonna come down from heaven. You're going to see somebody." That mean--well that's in the Book there you know, that He's going to come down here on this earth. We're gonna smoke Him (?). Well they already--well they got that in--well way back there I don't know where they learn that but--

(Do you know any of those songs?)

Yeah. They say whenever that man touch the ground they say that's when you're going to--people will be--they going to separated the people. That's where they going to put you away or separate. Well, I don't know--that's the reason I said these missionaries, they come around and try to--I said, "No. You just better--I'm the one that supposed to tell you what's-- We already got what all what you got in the book," I said. I said, "We have mans here, and prophets' and all them." Yeah, that's--

(Would you ever sing one of those songs sometime?)

Yeah.

(I'd love to get a tape of one of those songs.)

That Ghost Dance songs.