

Oh, just anything. Goods, or Bull Durham. But I don't think you can find Bull Durham now. Sack of Bull Durham with money in it. But way back there, Indians, when they come to pray at place like that, they bring horses. Beef, or something like that. Lot of stuff. Cause, it's something. They offered prayers in the spring, I think, in the spring. When everything all right in their family, everything's just--that's-- Well, it's something. If you love your family, you got to give lots to, if you want them to live long time, or just a good way--no accidents or nothing with them. But some say they just take a sack of Bull Durham--that's how much you think of your family--that's eight cents!

(That's not too much?)

That's not too much! Like me, if I go in the place, I ain't going to take no sack of Bull Durham in there and offer it. Well it's all right if that's what they-- (Did anybody ever put shawls--)

Yeah, shawls or anything. We had a meeting not very long ago, about that. Just like me I'm a man. Lots of times people come and bring goods.(piece goods) and I can't use them. I can't make dresses. And somebody said they ought to put shirts on there or handkerchiefs, socks--ties--or something like that-- What a man can use. But if he's got a wife he can use the goods, but this way if he ain't got a wife, you can't--

(What would you do with the goods?)

I just keep them, and then give them to different ones--some of my folks. That's what you're supposed to do-- Share it with other people.

(Well, do you have to leave them on there for a while?)

Yeah. Like today, if somebody go in there today, I go in there tomorrow in the morning and put it in the bottom of things there, and the next day I take them away. Cause I have to do all that praying in there, too, and all that.
