

just keep going, we was going all day. The next day there was nothing to eat, we ain't got nothing to eat. We go on the creek there, my mother found an old bone, -just clean the bone - she found it. She cooked it. She just pound that bone like this and we found water right there and put it in there. That evening - that night we ate that soup. I tell you there ain't nothing at all, nothing at all. But anyway - I guess it can't be helped - we just - next day we going again.. Then me and my brother made an arrow. We make it and we kill these wild mountain rats. We found them there. We kill them mountain rats. They got a house, big house they built, they in there, they still was living there.
