

Yeah, but I don't think he had this Cherokee--

(Over at female seminary what was their mode of dress? I mean did they have uniforms?)

Yeah, they had uniforms and square cap with tassle on it, like that. I got a picture here some place of those dress. A whole bunch coming out of church, but I don't know where it is.

(I haven't seen any of those pictures that you've mentioned down there at the museum so if you have any that are quite valuable historically--)

Well, I don't think I've got--I've got one or two pictures like you were talking about. Got one with horse at the springs up here above the cemetery.

Then there use to be a swinging bridge across the branch up there. Bunch had their pictures made standing under there. And I think those old Bob Sanders picture is in that group. I am not sure.

(What was the town of Tahlequah like when you went to school down there?)

Well, the main street was up and down branch. That was about all there was.

Well, there was right there where you come off the hill at the depot. We stayed all night there with John R. Price. (Next sentence not clear)

(End of Side A.)
