

way they come in here. (unin.) I hink. I don't know. But that way. Jimmy know.

Jimmy he's--I don't know I can't pronounce that. Rogers I believe. That's the one he's talking about over there. But the Indian he's here when the white people found him in there. See that he give it to the Indian over there for.'

(Well, the Indians was there when Columbus discovered America.)

Yeah, that's what--He pushed him on down into Mississippi State. He give that state over there Indian over there. See, that's the reason I had to (unin) the land, my mother's grandm'as land just like it is. Here 160. And when going over here, I he said he told me he said we didn't sell that land when I left over there. I just give that paper. They give it to white people. Then he said better land and good land. Mississippi State's nothin but all pine land, you know. Pine, raise it and clay. You got to.

(Say, what do them Indians do down there in Mississippi for a livin?)

Now, government just like he went down there and government he wants it all in here but Indian he don't wanta come. No sir. I mean he just don't wanta come.

Why leave it go. Well, now the governments over there. Take care like we had in there. He give you land up there. The government bought all that land out there and he give 'em that land up there that Indian over there.

(K mean what did the Indians do down there in Mississippi for a livin'. What did they do?)

Livin?

(Before--before they came to Oklahoma, what did they do for a livin?)

Oh, work. Just like I told you about that. Lots of people, Indian is married.

And white woman and all mixed up over there and sold all his land and everything. And so and white people he's just gonna get the Indians just like a nigger. He's just get him out there and work that--that's a democrat state, out there. And he gonna work and he won't let you marry a white woman no more, then.

(Um-hum)

Right then. And when you come in he feed you behind that house, over there when you go to work out there. Now you can go eat at that cafe now with that extra white woman eat there. Dinner, supper anything you want. But
