

he showed it to us and that's New Testament. Said he goes white people, he's after money that's all. He can preach all right, but he don't won't peoples' soul be save but that's what he preach for but he ain't. He may sound like that way but he wants to get paid. And Jesus and the God he don't want no money. He don't eat like we do. No, no. But he wants the money, he wants big pay. Just like when you workin' somebody hire a hand up here at Boswell. I give you 50 and 50 and I give you about $800 a month in here and well you go work out there. And there's another one over there, I'll give you 500 if you're a pretty good hand. Why he quit this one. He--he enjoyed with this guy all right, but he quit this one and he go to the other one. See that ain't no preacher. No. God don't want that. No, God don't want--he use that money. no.
